

Exact Sciences Laboratories (Cologuard) is out-of-network for HMO and Blue Open Access POS

Published: Jan 1, 2020 - Administrative

Exact Sciences offers Cologuard, a non-invasive colorectal cancer screening test. This is a reminder that Exact Sciences is an out-of-network laboratory for HMO and Open Access Point of Service (POS) members.

Laboratory Corporation of America (LabCorp) is the sole clinical reference laboratory provider for Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield HMO and Open Access POS members. This means that HMO and Open Access POS members should be referred to LabCorp.

LabCorp offers several options for colorectal cancer screening including the Occult Blood Fecal Immunoassay (iFOBT). If you have questions about LabCorp services including their colorectal cancer screening tests, please call LabCorp at 800-762-0890.
