

Kaden to offer services to fight opioid addiction in New Hampshire

Published: Jan 1, 2020 - Products & Programs / Behavioral Health

Kaden is a newly contracted provider in New Hampshire assisting in the fight against opioid addiction, bringing advanced technologies, medicated assisted treatment (MAT) and professional care to all who need them. Kaden uses a virtual platform that is infinitely accessible and easy to follow. The technology allows patients to connect to the professional care team and therapists via video conference, not just in a clinic or office. Kaden's advocates provide support, guidance and encouragement and are available via email, phone or instant message whenever needed.
